On that same date, the defendant made an initial appearance before the Court. The defendant was detained pending further action by the Court. The Southern District of California has respectfully declined a transfer of jurisdiction of this case.

According to the complaint, on May 14, 2011, the defendant made application for admission in the United States from Mexico, at the San Ysidro Port of Entry via the pedestrian lanes. Upon inspection, the defendant presented a United States birth certificate and a counterfeit identification card. Upon questioning, the defendant stated he was born in California, and was returning to the United States to work at NASSCO. When asked for his California, identification card, the defendant stated he lost it on the trolley. Upon further questioning the defendant admitted his true identity and citizenship.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
